University of Toronto LAW JOURNAL

CONTENTS volume xxxi 1981

ARTICLES

Reflections on Canadian abortion law; Evacuation and destruction – two separate issues MARGARET A. SOMERVILLE 1

A long, sad story: Siting transmission lines in Ontario R.C.B. RISK 27

Credit unions in Canada: The dilemma of success C.S. AXWORTHY 72

Consumer redress mechanisms for poor-quality and defective products IAIN D.C. RAMSAY 117

Picketing: Canadian courts and the Labour Relations Board of British Columbia RICHARD BROWN 153

Labour law is a subset of employment law BRIAN LANGILLE 200

Clear cases WM E. CONKLIN 231

The modernization of Canadian personal property security law JACOB S. ZIEGEL RONALD C.C. CUMING 249

Fictions and the law R.A. SAMEK 290

The unharnessed insurer: A foreboding presence LEON A. TRAKMAN 318

The role of the public in scientific determination of policy: The Canadian inquiry process LIORA SALTER 343

Matrimonial property – Canadian common law style A.J. MCCLEAN 363

REVIEWS OF BOOKS
WADDAMS Introduction to the Study of Law R.A. MACDONALD 436